

Boxing Alberta Registered Club Policy

Please ensure you review the conditions listed prior to submitting an application to register a club with Boxing Alberta.

Certified Coaching Staff

Registered, Boxing Alberta certified coaches must be present to supervise any training/sparring. Coaches actively acquiring certification can be granted a grace period by the board. It is understood that Boxing Alberta liability insurance covers only Boxing Alberta members in activities related to their membership in Boxing Alberta and pursuant to the Policies and By-laws of Boxing Alberta.

It is the responsibility of the club that All staff members supervising training and programs within the club must be registered with Boxing Alberta.

All training must be conducted in a clean and safe environment using equipment as outlined in the Boxing Canada rule book and the NCCP Coaching Manuals. Club membership will be conditional at all times and may have to pass an initial safety inspection by an appointee of the Executive Committee. The inspection will include a checklist, approved by the Executive Committee, of safety features and a recommendation for membership of the club. The address of the clubs primary training location must have the majority of its registered athletes training in the location specified for the majority of their training schedule. The executive reserves the right to request the clubs training times to verify clubs' legitimacy through a possible inspection.

If a club is unable to train at their own registered address, they can use another registered club's facilities and have the benefit of Boxing Alberta's liability insurance but will be unable to apply for a sanctioned event or have voting rights at Boxing Alberta annual general meeting.
